Cardonna said. Don't do resistance."

Several witnesses testified that the prisoner, so far as their knowledge went, was an orderly, quiet, and sober man, who never had trouble with his neighbors. Byrnes and Teehan, it was testified, were both large and strong men, while Cardonna is below the medium size.

ARTILLERYMAN KING ON TRIAL A Murder Case in Which the Covernment

The trial of Artilleryman Francis H. King of the garrison at Fort Hamilton for the murder of Ryan H. Willis on the Government reservation on the night of Nov. 26 was begun resterday in the United States Court in Brooklyn. It is the first murder case ever tried in a Federal court in that city. United States District Attorney Wilber surprised the Court by announcing that the Government had refused his application for an appropriation to employ a stenographer.

Judge Lacombe-Do I understand you to say the authorities in Washington expect you to put a man on trial at this bar to be tried for his life and refuse to furnish you with the means to secure an accurate record of the testimony taken in the case? Mr. Wilber-That seems to be the exact of-

Mr. Wilber—That seems to be the exact official provision, your Honor.

Judge Lacombe—It seems incredible. Econemy in the expenditure of the public money is a very good thing, but it may be carried to excess. Suppose this man is tried, convicted, and sentenced to death, and an application is made to the pardoning power, where is the President going to obtain a record of the testimony on which the man was convicted? Such a method as this is not only unrighteens but President going to obtain a record of the testinony on which the man was convicted? Such a method as this is not only unrighteous but it defeats its own end. The proper course would be to adjourn the case until next term, or until the Government gives the District Attorney the funds to try the case as he ought to try it. But, as the woll being of society requires the speedy trial of criminal cases, we will go on and do the best we can. Of course, it will take double the time to try the case, but private litigants who are crowded off the calendar in consequence of that fact will know that their misfortune arises from the fact that the authorities in Washington do not seem to understand that we are living here in the afternoon of the nineteenth century.

Gen. Catlin of the delence came to the relief of the Government by offering to furnish his own stenographer to take the minutes of the trial, and in case no appropriation could be obtained, to pay the expenses out of his own pocket. Mr. Wilber said he would certify to the Government the nature of the services thus rendered.

Only seven jurors were chosen before the panel of fifty talesmen was exhausted, and an adjournment took place until this morning. It will be asserted on the part of the prisoner that he fired the fatal builet in self-delence.

PRISON CLOTHING MANUEACTURE

PRISON CLOTHING MANUFACTURE.

The big clothing manufacturers of this city are opposed to manufacture of clothing by the convicts in the State prison, and they are prepared to make a strenuous fight at Albany scainst the appropriation of any further money by the Legislature to keep clothing making going in Sing Sing, Auburn, and Clinton prisons A protest against any further appropriations was put into circulation yesterday afternoon. and in less than an hour had been signed by a and in less than an hour had been signed by a string of names of manufacturers representing $50,000,000 of invested capital. It called attention to the fact that the firms who are engaged in the manufacture of clothing pay a larger amount of laxes into the treasury than any other single class of manufacturers in the state, and that it is manifestiv unjust and inequitable that any part of the sevenue thus paid by them to the State should be used by the State to keep the prison work shops going in competition with free labor.

Among the firms that signed the petition are: Hornthal, Whitehead, Welessman & Co., Lithauer, Scheuer, Bloom & Simon, M. Sampter, Sons & Co., Mendel Bros., George Bruck & Co., Naumburg, Kraus, Lauer & Co., Banner Bros., Stein, Block & Co., 8 Sykes & Co., Will, Brickner & Wile, L. Adler Bros. & Co., Strouse & Bros., Hendskopf & Barbier, D. L. Newborg & Bon, Newborg, Rosenberg & Co., A. Levy & Bro., Levy Bros. & Co., Bloom, Meyer & Bosenthal.

Rosenthal.

Some of the manufacturers, who are familiar with the details of the business as carried on in the prisons, assert that its supposed profitableness to the State is unreal. In the Wardens reports atock on hand is inventoried at figures, they say, that it could not possibly bring on the market, and a pretended value thus created that deceives the taxpayers. They also assert that is order to make these favorable reports the entire attention of wardens has been devoted to turning out a lot of manufactured products by the convicts, and the proper care and repair of the prison has been neglected, and the food of the convicts allowed to become inferior.

and repair of the prison has been neglected, and the food of the convicts allowed to become inferior.

The Legislature has already made a provisional appropriation of $250,000 to provide work for lithe convicts, while the legislative committees can inquire into the question whether it is advisable to grant an additional $1,500,000 for which the prison authorities ask. Two of the five benators on the Senate Committee are opposed to the granting of this additional appropriation, it is said, and Senator Murphy, the king pin of the committee, who can settle the question either way by his vote, is underided. The petitioners sent him word last night that their petition was on its way to Albany.

ESCAPE OF GREEN GOODS MEN.

Judge Gildereleeve Directs an Acquittal With Good Advice to the Prisoners, Harry Ross and Harry Goldstein were arraigned for dealing in green goods before Judge Gildersieeve and a jury in the General Sessions yesterday. Boss was put on trial. Detective James McGuire of Police Head-quarters, who arrested Ross and Goldstein, was the only witness. They were young and almost beardless young men. Deputy Assistant District Attorney Henry Macdons ques-tioned Detective McGuire, who said that he found Ross and Goldstein in Ross's room at 382 Broome street on Dec. 28 last. Under the bed he found a trunk which a key found in Rose's pocket unlocked, and in the trunk were packages addressed for mailing and a cyclestyle press. In the packages were printed circulars advertising green goods, and in each Rose's pocket unlocked, and in the turn where gazged in with the wife of Byrnes, who lived in the same tenement. It is admitted by the defence that Byrnes and Techan came to their deaths from shots discharged from a pistol in the hands of Cardonna. The prisoner pleads self-defence.

Mary O'Connor was the first witness called by the people. She saw Cardonna after a little row with Byrnes in the hallway go down the street with a dog under his arm. She thought thep he mean to kill some one, she said, the prisoner of the street with a dog under his arm. She thought then he mean to kill some one, she said, mere that a man should take a little dog to go and deliver it to a purchaser and a little gan to go and kill some one at the same time?

"that a man should take a little dog to go and kill some one at the same time?

"that a man should take a little dog to go and kill some one at the same time?

"that a man should take a little dog to go and kill some one at the same time?

"The nor doubt, your Honor, that I have a pretty good collection of them at my offices."

It was about 7's colock on the evening of said. I was a break and said, I am no hall-breed; or words to that effect. Cardonna then wasked toward the witness. "Cardonna was taking to breast and said," I am no hall-breed or words to that effect. Cardonna then wasked toward than it should be should be law prohibiting corporal punishment. Yesterday it reported at the meeting of the Board that the charge was unfounded. The members of the committee were not unanimous. however, as Commissioner Wood said he thought the teacher should receive the minimum punishment-five days' pay-for such an offence. Commissioner Cole thought so, too. Commissioner Wood asserted that some of the committeemen were shrewd lawyers, for, after the teacher had admitted striking the boy in question and a witness had testified to the same effect, the majority of the committee concluded that the blow had been given as an illustration, to indicate to the boy how he had burt a fellow quali, and not in the way of punishment. There was rauch discussion, but the majority report was adopted.

The resignation of Thomas F. Harrison, First Assistant superintendent of Grammar Schools, was accepted. He has held the position for twenty-two years, and has been connected with the schools for forty-nine rears. A committee of five was appointed to name a successor. Auditor John Davenport, whom a number of the Commissioners tried to oust some time ago, sent in his resignation, and it was laid over.

Miss Elizabeth A. Pope, principal of Female Department of Grammar School No. 3. startled the Commissioners by a communication which alleged that she had been subjected to "cruel threats and indignities" by the trustees of the Ninth Ward. The trustees also asked for an investigation of Miss Pope. The Commissioners referred the matter to the Committee on Teachers.

The following trustees were appointed: M. the teacher had admitted striking the boy in Permission to defend filmself was granted by the Court, and Dr. Friess promptly challenged twenty jurors.

Henry Rutan testified that Dr. Friess was called when his wife was taken ill, and that he unexpectedly abandoned her next day, telling him to get another physician. Dr. Bleyle swore that Friess neted in a bungling manner in treating the woman, and said in his opinion her life could have been saved with proper care and treatment. In his opinion Mrs. Rutan's death was due to maipractice by Dr. Friess. Dr. Friess cross-examined him sharply, but did not shake his testimony, Finally, losing patience, he asked:

"Don't you know that you are under oath, and that you are perjuring yourself?"

"I know that I am under oath and telling the truth," said Dr. Bleyle.

Dr. Andrews and Dr. Guenther gave testimony supporting that of Dr. Bleyle. The case is still on.

Ten Days for Selling Beer on Sunday. Henry Eckhardt, a liquor dealer of 202 East 101st street, was convicted yesterday, before lation of the Excise law. Policemen Cagner and Degnan testified that on Sunday, Jan. 22, they saw men and women and boys go into the they saw men and women and boys go into the family entrance and return with pails of beer. Cagney followed a boy who went into the store, and saw men playing cards and with glasses of beer in front of them. The proprietor tried to drive Cagney out. Begnan helped to arrest him. Lawyer Moses Wyman, who appeared both as lawyer and witness, was flushed and excited, and he was warned by Judge Martine that he was injuring his client's cause. Both the defendant and his counsel testilied that they were the only persons in the liquor store on the afternoon in question, and that no liquor was sold. Eckhardt was convicted and Judge Martine sentenced him to juil for ten days.

They Left Court Arm in Arm. On Tuesday Eliza Downing of $1,763 Third avenue complained to Justice Duffy that her husband, John P. Downing, who is a variety actor, now performing in the Brooklyn Theatre, had deserted in the Brooklyn Theatre, had deserted her for three months. She also said he was living with another woman. Yesterday Mrs. Downing brought her baby boy to the Harlem Court with her, and a policeman brought the husband. The wife had discovered that her suspicious concerning the alienation of her husband's affections were unfounded, and she did not want him punished. He said he was on the road the three months she complained of, but that he sent her what money he could. The case was dismissed.

The couple went out arm in arm, and now that the wife has got over her jesiousy they will live together again.

The Mayor Settles a Claim.

Isidor Cohen of 138 Columbia street, auctioneer, was summoned to the Mayor's office yesterday on complaint of Mrs. Emme Cohen, The employees in the printing office of Russell Brothers, printers in Rose street, presented Mr. Theedore Russell, the head of the suctioneer. THIRTY INDIGNANT GIRLS.

Making Things Very Lively for the Prin-

Thirty sweet girls of Grammar School No. 11. in Brooklyn, are making things unusually lively, pleasant, and interesting this week for their principal, Mr. L. F. Lewis, on account of in algebra for admission to the High School. Mr. Lewis was their instructor in algebra.

Before and after school hours they gather in excited little groups and discuss with blazing cheeks, flashing eyes, and indignant voices the cause of their unexpected failure, and they unanimously agree that, when in the adjacent Grammar School No. 3 sixty-three pupils out of sixty-five passed the same examination, and when in their own school the class of boys, under a different teacher, found no difficulty in doing the work satisfactorily, that the thirty giris out of a class of forty who must wait six months longer for promotion are not so much in fault as their instructor.

Disappointment and indignation fill the hearts of the fair students, and vengeance dire is vowed to be wreaked on the author of their misfortune. There is deflance in the flash of their eye, animosity in the rustle of their skirts, resentment in the ring of their footsteps, and acrimony in the sound of their usually sweet voices. Occasionally from the buzzing, agitated groups we catch exclamations like the following: "I don't believe he could face that examination himself." "Oh, we don't mind staying here six months longer, we have such a lovely teacher." "If Mr. Lewis would spend as much time studying methods as he wastes in Miss.—'s room we might be taught some of the first principles of algebra." &c. &c., all of which is doubtless exceedingly entertaining and encouraging to Mr. Lewis, and will furnish him abundant lood for reflection during the entire term. when in their own school the class of boys

The Bureau of Incumbrances After the Small Stands and Mrs. Langury's Feats. The Bureau of Incumbrances has removed the one-cent coffee stand of St. Andrew's Guild, supplied by Mrs. La Madrid, at the corner of Broadway and Ann street. Complaints were made by property holders that the place attracted too many tramps.

In consequence of the removal of Mrs. Lessen's stand at Beekman and William streets recently Mr. Langbard of 79 Beekman street complained of several similar stands, and the complained of several similar stands, and the bureau has removed a stand at the corner of Cortiandt and West streets. The well-known Park row newsman whose stand has been removed from in front of the Meil office was selling his papers from a box yesterday and had many symmethizing customers.

Inspector McGinnis inspected Mrs. Langtry's cince, and also the fences of her neighbors recently complained of. Mrs. Langtry's curb line of pavement was found to be out of line, and her counsel reported that it had been altered for a carriageway, but would be replaced. A report will be made to-day regarding other fences in the neighborhood.

Shot in the Wrist by a Policeman.

Henry Koebler of Chatham square was shot in Hoboken yesterday by Policeman Mc-Namara for resisting arrest. He was walking along Washington street when he was accosted along Washington street when he was accosted by the policeman, who was in citizen's dress. The latter saked Koebier his name and resi-dence, which he refused to give, as the police-man was not in uniform. Thereupon the po-liceman attempted to arrest him and he re-sisted. McNamara drew his revolver and fired. The bullet hit Koebier in the wrist, inflicting a painful wound. When Koebier was taken be-fore Recorder McDonough he was discharged. He intends to sue McNamara for damages.

CHICK ENING WALL, The CARRI CONCERTS.
PERDINAND and HERMANN CARRI,
POURTH CONCERT THURSDAY EVE, Feb. 18, 1888.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache: to know that no poisonous putrid matter deflies the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste, and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, such up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoymenta. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical, and never failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00. POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON.

PAINS AND WEAKNESS of females instantly relieved by that new elegant, and infallible Antidote to Pain, in flammation, and Weakness the Custicures Anti-Pain Plaster. The first and only almostoding Plaster especially alapted to cure Female ains and Weaknesses. Vantly superior to all other pain-moduling Plaster especially adapted to cure Female Pains and Westnesses. Vastly superior to all other plasters yet prepared. At all drugstars, 20 cents, five for $1.00; or, postage free, of POTTER DRUG AND CHEM-ICAL CO., Bestim, Mass.
